CURRICULUM VITAE
APOSTOLOS VOURDAS
PhD, MRCPsych, CCST

Dr A. Vourdas graduated from the Medical School of Athens, Greece, where he was awarded his PhD in 1996. He was trained in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry in Cambridge and at the Maudsley Hospital in London. He has been an elected Member of the Royal College of Psychiatrists since 2000. He is a trained cognitive and behavioral psychotherapist for children and adolescents. His research has been focused on early developmental difficulties in children with psychiatric problems and has been presented in a number of conferences in Europe and at the United States. He worked as a consultant in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at the Maudsley Hospital before he returned to Greece in 2006. From 2007 to 2014 he held a University post in the Medical School of Athens, responsible for the training of medical students and the implementation of a Parent Training Program. He is the author of the book "Positive Parents Happy Kids". He is also a founding member and the Vice President of Hellenic Forensic Psychiatric Association. Currently, he works as a Medical Director at a private Child and Family Guidance Clinic and he is a listed Court Expert Witness.
